

The body of Jesus rotted in the tomb, if it was not eaten before then, by vultures and jackals. Hi, this is Lon Solomon, pastor of McLean Bible Church, and this was said by a German theologian whose name I can't pronounce anyway. But here's the point. If this guy is correct then why didn't somebody in the first century produce the half-eaten body of Jesus and bring the whole Christian faith to an abrupt end? Friends the Jewish leaders were anxious to discredit Jesus as the messiah, the Roman government was anxious to discredit the Christian faith. All they had to do was to produce the decaying body of Jesus and their goal would have been achieved. So why didn't they? Well only one reason. Because as the Angels said, He is risen. Folks both the German theologian and the Angels can't be right, you've got to make a choice. I don't know about you, but I am going to stick with the Angels. Not a Sermon, Just a Thought.
