

"I went from nothing to a pile of money as high as the world trade center, and then just like the world trade center poof it was gone overnight. Hi, this is Lon Solomon, pastor of McLean Bible Church, and those words were spoken by Ted Turner, lamenting the loss of assets in recent days that he's been through. You know the Bible talks about what Ted's experienced. The Bible says don't weary yourself to gain money. Because money can sprout wings like an eagle and be gone. Instead the Bible says integrity and honor and a good name are more desirable than a lot of money. So if you're on the DC treadmill, working for things that won't last anyway. Why not partner with Jesus and live for some things that will. Not a Sermon, Just a Thought
